

NANTHAKUMAR VEPUSANAN

Enthusiastic and driven Computer Science student at the University of Sri Jayewardenepura with a strong passion for technology and innovation. Currently working as an IT Project Manager at ASTA, where I lead project planning, task management, and team coordination to ensure timely and efficient project delivery. I bring additional skills in social media management and graphic design, leveraging creativity and communication to drive engagement and brand presence. Skilled in cross-functional collaboration, digital strategy, and project oversight, I'm eager to further my impact in the global market field and grow as a professional.
